
⁵ The social allocation measures the share of the social services sector in the national budget.