1) AUSTRALIA Philippines-Australia Community Assistance Program (PACAP)
PACAP Secretariat , Australian Embassy, Level 23, Tower 2 RCBC Plaza, 6819 Ayala Ave., Makati City 1200 Tel. No.: 757-8101	Support community-initiated sustainable poverty alleviation programs and activities; and assist capability-building initiatives of the non-profit sector (primarily NGOs and POs) as well as the LGUs to provide services that meet community-initiated needs	PACAP will focus on activities that aim to reduce poverty both directly and indirectly by: i) improving community access to basic services; ii) strengthening the management and implementation capacity of key local service providers; and iii) helping to build relationships between communities, NGOs, POs and LGUs.	The Focused Community Assistance Scheme (FOCAS) approach of PACAP comprises a suite of strategically linked, but separately funded activities aimed at improving livelihoods, increasing local appreciation of the community's environmental impact, and improving community advocacy in selected priority provinces (Agusan del Sur, Bohol, Misamis Occidental, Northern Samar and Surigao del Norte).  The Responsive Approach of PACAP includes activities primarily in the southern Philippines and the priority provinces but has allowance for small allocation elsewhere in the country. Selection criteria for these activities will be revised annually to reflect any changes proposed by SGF.	PACAP will receive applications from Philippine NGOs and determine the eligibility of the proponent as well as appraise the project proposal based on PACAP Guidelines	Ongoing facility

3) WORLD BANK Japan Social Development Fund
Ms. Lani Azarcon Operations Officer (Trust Funds) The World Bank – Manila Tai Pan Building, Ortigas Center, Pasig City Tel No. 637-5855	JSDF grants are intended to focus on activities which: (i) respond directly to the needs of the poorest and most vulnerable groups; (ii) encourage the testing of innovative methods; (iii) support initiatives that lead to rapid, demonstrable benefits with positive prospects of developing into sustainable activities; or (iv) build ownership, capacity, empowerment and participation of local communities, non-governmental organizations (NGOs) and other civil society groups to facilitate their involvement in operations financed by the World Bank.	The JSDF finances two types of grants: Project Grants and Capacity Building Grants. Eligible activities under JSDF project grants include: (i) activities directly providing relief measures, supporting the improvement of services and facilities for poorer population groups, or reinforcing/reinvigorating social safety nets, or (ii) innovation and testing of new approaches, particularly in the social sectors, which could then be replicated on a larger scale or be a precursor of future World Bank Group-financed operations. Eligible activities under JSDF capacity building grants include: (i) capacity building and improvement measures, for example to bolster local communities and NGOs through learning by doing, to expand the capabilities or coverage of social fund-type institutions; or (ii) to support local government working with local communities. The JSDF particularly encourages the participation of civil society and nongovernmental organizations (NGOs) in the design or implementation of the grant.	JSDF grants may be made for activities in countries that are members of any of the World Bank Group entities and the low-income countries and lower middle-income countries as defined in the 2005 World Development Report. JSDF grant supported activities must help “spark” changes in policy and decision-making at the grass-root level and cultivate partnerships with local populations. The initiatives and mechanisms supported by the grant must have positive prospects for developing into sustainable activities over the long term. Proposed grant activities must be consistent with the World Bank’s assistance strategy for the eligible country and the application. The specific grant activities must be linked to a World Bank Group financed project and the application must demonstrate how the activity which normally cannot be funded under World Bank lending would enhance the impact of the related loan. JSDF grants can be awarded to non government organizations, subject to the no objection of the Department of Finance.	A formal application demonstrating that the activities meet the eligibility criteria along with a proposed budget must be submitted by the leader of a World Bank task team authorized to sponsor the grant activities on behalf of the recipient. The proposal should also demonstrate the recipient’s commitment and ownership of the activities, the financial soundness of the executing agency, implementation timetable and monitoring &amp; evaluation plan. All JSDF proposals should be endorsed by the relevant country director in the World Bank.
